

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, February 8.

If President Harrison and Secretary Blaine have any idea of what sort of a reciprocity proposition the Commission of the Canadian Government, expected here in a few days, will submit as an inducement for the opening of negotiations with this Government, they guard the knowledge well, for not an idea on the subject can be obtained from any one in official life. A rumor was current here some time ago that a hint had been given to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, that the Administration was ready to open negotiations looking to commercial reciprocity with Canada, but prominent Republicans have denied that any such hint has ever been given by any one in authority, and they say besides that there is little possibility of the negotiation of any treaty unless the Canadian Commissioners come here authorized to agree to absolute free trade between the two countries.

Other prominent gentlemen say they can see no good reason for not negotiating a limited reciprocity treaty, similar to those recently concluded with other countries, that shall be mutually beneficial. But as Canada wants the markets of this country worse than this country wants her markets, it is not probable that any bargain can be made without giving the United States the best of it. Those who favor the annexation of Canada, and Mr. Blaine is said to be one of them, are opposed to granting Canada any trade privileges whatever until she gets them by coming into the Union. The visit of the Canadian Commissioners will be a very interesting event whether anything comes of it or not.

Postmaster-General Wanamaker has issued an order giving money-order facilities to all Post-offices where the commission of the Postmaster reaches $200 a year. This will within the next year add a half more than double the number of money-order offices.

The Anti-Option Bill is exciting quite as much interest as at the last session of Congress, and just as powerful a lobby to oppose it is maintained here by the brokers of the country; but "Deacon" White, who last year headed that lobby and made his boasts of having given the bill its quietus, is not here; he got squeezed in an option deal and was so badly squeezed that it is but recently he has been enabled to compromise with his creditors and resume his business of being in options. Representative Bush thinks the bill will pass the House by a two-thirds vote. He says the opposition of some people to the measure reminds him of the pork-packers, who would have gone to almost any expense to defeat the Oleomargarine Bill, when it was before Congress, and who now, having discovered its benefits, just as furiously oppose its repeal.

It was quite a disappointment to the lovers of sensation when the House passed a deficiency bill of $200,000 to keep the Census Bureau at work the rest of the fiscal year, without a big row. For weeks there have been whispers of charges to be made against the Superintendent of the Census when the bill came up, but all the charges made were of a mild and general nature, such as political opponents are always expected to indulge in against each other. The fact is that the responsibility for whatever mistakes may exist or have existed in the Census Bureau is fully shared by Congressmen, and if incompetent people have been employed and favoritism shown in promoting employees, it was largely done on the demand of individual Congressmen of both parties, and, of course, the men who compelled the Superintendent of the Census to grant them favors are not in a position to blackguard him for having done so. It is the old story of the juryman who had some of the pork.

The idea of ceding the arid lands now owned by the General Government to the several States has been officially approved by the House Committee on Irrigation, and a bill for that purpose will be reported to the House as soon as the details are settled.

The Farmers' Alliance Congressmen have endorsed the resolution offered by Representative Fithian of Illinois instructing the Ways and Means Committee to report a bill placing all agricultural implements on the free list; but, for several reasons, there is little probability of its adoption by the House. The first of these is enough; the Committee on Rules, which under the new rules wields a power as great as, and in some respects greater than, that held by Speaker Reed in the last House, will not let it get before the House.

The test case brought in the courts here to compel the United States Mint to coin a silver brick under the old law, which it is claimed has never been repealed, has been argued, and a decision is expected this week. Whatever the decision is, an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

It is understood that the Committee on Territories will report to the House in favor of the admission of Arizona and of New Mexico as States, and in favor of pigeonholing the applications of Oklahoma and Utah.

Remember this is the last week of the special sale of Rubbers at Shoenthal's.

The World For 1892.

The most energetic, resolute and relentless journals in America when it sets out to accomplish any great object; I can testify to its ready humanity, comprehension and persistence."—Gail Hamilton.

We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friends a piece of good news:

THE WORLD intends to and will elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1884.

Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of the Tariff Reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, THE WORLD will be foremost in his support. The next President must be a Democrat.

But while doing this THE WORLD will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. THE WORLD never colors news; it photographs events.

THE WORLD is now printing an average of over 330,000 copies a day. It has made a net average gain of 30,000 a day during the past year. It will circulate next year, on the basis of this increase only, at least 120,000,000 copies of the ablest, strongest and best Democratic newspaper ever printed.

THE WORLD is recognized as distinctively the Newspaper of the People. It believes that to be the highest journalism which is dedicated to the public service.

THE WORLD puts heart and conscience into its work as well as brains. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unswerving champion of the poor, the strength of the weak, the help of the poor, the strength of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the people, it gives back to them freely whatever service its influence and its resources enable it to render.

With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, THE WORLD wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year, and confidentially bids them to expect from it during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished.—Advt.
